

Reservation and Event Contract

Day: Time: Number of persons:

Name:.....

Dear guest, please select your menu from these suggestions. (One single menu per event) Should a course on the menu order not appeal to you, you can of course choose a different course from one of the other menus. We will then inform you of any possible price changes. All prices are inclusive alterations and are inclusive of VAT.

When arranging your event please let us know the number of people you expect to attend the event. However, you also have the possibility of letting us know the exact number of participants, which will also form the basis for the number of set meals you will be charged, by the latest 2 workdays before the date of the event.

If an event cannot be held without the restaurant being the cause of this, in this case restaurant Aigner is entitled to charge the costs for making the restaurant available, in particular costs for food.

In the case of cancelling the event, the restaurant is entitled to the following claims:

8 to 14 days before the event: 33% compensation for lost food sales.

The following shall apply if this spot yet been specifically defined: minimum menu price* x number of persons.

Up to 7 days before the event: 66 % compensation for lost food sales.

The following shall apply if this has not yet been specifically defined: minimum menu price* x number of persons.

From 2 (work) days before the event: 100 % compensation for lost food sales.

The minimum menu price at lunchtime is 27.00 Euro and in the evening 36.00 Euro.

We reserve the right to charge payment on account in individual cases.

We hope you enjoy your visit and wish you bon appetit, your Aigner Team

We agree to the stated agreements.
